W. N. MARTIN FOR CONGRESS

Local Man Files Papers For Place on Republican Primary Ballot in August

TWO OTHER AS-

PIRANTS FOR HONOR

W. N. Martin, of this city, announced as candidate for Congress from the Second District, subject to the action of the Republican voters at the Primary election August 5. Mr. Martin is an old Earlington boy and is a member of the great army of laboring men, being foreman of the Bee office and, if he should be nominated and elected would strive to make a true servant of the people, looking to the best interests of his constituents at every point, showing favors to none, and doing all in his power to serve the best interests of all classes, protecting the rights and privileges of all.

W. C. Fowler, of Hopkinsville, and F. J. Penticost, of Henderson, have also announced for the place.

Age of Discretion.

When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee; to deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh forward things; who leaves the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; who rejoices to do evil, and delights in the forwardness of the wicked.—Proverbs 2:10-14.

FAREWELL MEETING

For Soldier Boys Held at the Opera House Last Night

The most impressive public gathering ever held in this city was the farewell meeting held for members of Co. G. Hospital Corps and members of Field Staff last night at the opera house. The house was well filled. Practically all of the men who are going to the front were present and a large number of citizens, both ladies and gentlemen. Appropriate addresses were made by Revs. Grant and Hawkins. F. B. Arnold and Dr. Nisbet also made short talks. An opportunity was given to the soldier boys to enlist under the banner of Christ and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity. A movement was started to raise a fund for Co. G and the Hospital Corps. $185.00 was secured at the meeting and this sum will in all probability be increased by public subscription. This gathering was one of the most impressive ever held in the city and much lasting good was accomplished. Rev. Grant and Hawkins, the originators of the meeting are to be congratulated on the splendid success met with.

Following are the names and amounts donated by Earlington citizens. This list is still open and parties desiring to contribute to the soldier fund can do so at the Peoples Bank.

Summer Ceremonial Visitation Promises to be One of the Best Ever Held

V. H. Behne, in charge of the paraphernalia, instruments of torture, etc., used in ceremonials staged by Ritzpah Shrine, left yesterday for Paducah, where the summer ceremonial will be staged by this Temple Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Behne will be busily engaged today and tonight, getting the Masonic Temple in readiness for the staging of the big event. The class for the work will be one of the largest ever taken in and the boys anticipate a royal time.

A special train will be run from Central City, Madisonville, Providence, Henderson and Earlington. Shriners will leave here Wednesday on the 12:15 Dinky and will join the special at Nortonville. The boys will return home Thursday morning.

NOTICE TO ST. CHARLES SUBSCRIBERS

There seems to be a misunderstanding among some of you in regard to the collecting of subscriptions recently. The names were sent in by this office and Mr. Will Faull had nothing whatever to do with it. Please bear this in mind and if you have any complaint to make, make it to me and not to Mr. Faull.

CINCINNATI CONTEST PARTY HAS RETURNED

Had a Good Time and Wanted to Stay a Week Longer

The members of the Earlington Bee's contest party who made the Ohio River trip to Louisville and Cincinnati via Evansville last week, have returned home, according to advertisement, on their special car Sunday night on Train 93. The entire party are unanimous in their praise of this trip and say it was the most delightful one in every way they had ever enjoyed. The thanks of the party are due too Mr. Thomas Quinnan, of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Bradshaw, editor of the Cincinnati and Mr. Ey, of the American Press Association; these gentlemen accompanied the party on their sight-seeing trips, furnished passes to the places of amusements and furnished all necessary information regarding objects of interest. Cincinnati is a very interesting city and her people are courteous, friendly and hospitable. The Bee's party enjoyed every moment of their visit and regretted their stay was so short. Miss Frieda Heller and her sister Miss Estella, and Miss Lavenia Edwards, met the party on arrival and added greatly to the pleasure of the trip. During the stop over in Louisville the party visited the armory and saw the soldier boys getting ready to leave for the mobilization camp, visited the picture shows and did some shopping. Too much cannot be said about the trip, on the Tarascon. The boat trip was the chief enjoyment of the party and the Tarascon was turned over to the Bee's party without reservation.

Capt. Williams and the crew did not spare any means to make the party have a good time, and they certainly did have it. Mr. and Mrs. Veck, and Mr. and Mrs. Cowlishaw, of Evansville joined the party and added quite a good deal to the enjoyment of all as they were jolly good fellows and out for a good time. There were seven telephone girls on the Tarascon from New Albany, all members of the "Flower Club," and believe me they were having some time. Their names were Mrs. Rickmeyer, Mrs. Meinhardt, Mrs. Beader, Miss Rockenbach, Mrs. Scheeter, Mrs. Mary Trintler and Mrs. Rieber. As you can readily see from their names they are French(?). These ladies had a better time than any one and were the life of the party while on the boat, and these same girls will in all probability go to the Mammoth Cave with the Bee's party on Saturday, August 20. An amusing incident occurred while in Cincinnati, the party stopped at the Hotel Metropole, where when they first arrived the sign on the building was yellow; that afternoon the management of the hotel had it repainted green. This slight change was the cause of some of the party passing the hotel several times without discovering it was the place they wanted, and they were considerably astonished when they did venture in to find it was the right place.

Brought a Sample With Her.

The tobacconist watched her outside his shop window. For fully half an hour she stood there gazing through the panes. Then she came in. She fumbled and fussed, and at length brought forth a little packet. This she carefully undid till, finally, a small stub end came to view. The tobacconist raised his eye brows inquiringly. "Good afternoon," said the lady, holding up the stub end gingerly for inspection. "Here is a remnant of one of my husband's special cigars. Have you anything to match it?"

BAPTIST REVIVAL

Continues Through Week—Much Interest Being Shown

The revival at the Baptist church in this city, being conducted by Rev. M. E. Staley and Pastor Connaway continues thru the week and probably longer. Interest in the meeting grows with each service and there have been several additions.

WHY FT. THOMAS?

Along with the three great questions which have agitated the minds of all the great philosophers—namely Who struck Billy Patterson? What became of Charles Ross? and How the apple came to be inside the dumpling? may be placed the paramount question of the Dark and Bloody Ground; why should Fort Thomas be selected as a mobilization center for the Kentucky National Guard?

After much study and much research it is found that Fort Thomas is a rugged army Post in the county of Campbell. It is possible to reach Fort Thomas, provided one possesses the patience of a Cyrus Field and the roving instincts of a Drake or a Magellan. First you travel by rail into the village of New Port—which is just across the bridge from Cincinnati—then you wait patiently for a street car and if one arrives ere you lose all hope you may trolley away to Fort Thomas. There you discover after you embark that it is a small army post, which by stretching will accommodate one regiment. The parade ground is admirably suited
